

LOST SEASON 6 EPISODE 10

TITLE: The Package

There are two packages. The first is the watch and the money that Jin was supposed to give to Keamy. Jin was delivering payment to his own hitman. The second package appears to be none other than our friend and brutha Desmond! It appears there are two Dads that are waaaaayyyy too overprotective of their daughters.

1. Nope, there isn't too much to talk about with this episode. What you saw was what you got for the most part. It appears that they are simply putting the pieces in place for the big finale.
2. Desmond appears to be some sort of secret weapon. This is the first time he has appeared in the current timeline since "The Variable" which was back in Season 4, but more importantly this is the first time he has been back on the island since 'The Economist' which was way back at the beginning of Season 3.
3. There is now only one living character left that was in the original crash that is not on the island now. I'm not going to tell you though.
4. Mikhail (the guy who could speak many languages) was part of the Others. If you have been hanging out and getting these updates for a while, you will remember him fondly as "Patchy". He was the dude who took care of the Flame station and took care of communicating with the outside world. He killed Charlie (and himself) with a grenade. The interesting part about this, is that in the Flash Sideways of THIS episode he died (we assume) by getting shot in the same eye.

5. In the flash sideways, Sun and Jin aren't married. Sun was running away from her husband Jin in the original timeline, now it appears they are running away together.
6. The only timeline that doesn't seem different (so far) is Kate. She is still on the run, she was still with the US Marshall on the plane, but she did say to Claire that she's innocent. I still think Kate is important somehow. I am a bit worried that Locke said Kate's name isn't written down "anymore" in the cave.
7. Jin gets put into good old Room 23. He starts the subliminal message craziness.

8. Okay, I'll tell you... It's Walt. Walt is the only original non-dead person who is not back on the island ... yet.

9. Map of the island:

10. Smokey Man in Black Locke Monster still isn't smart enough to get around the sonar fence. Hmm...

11. Jin finally gets to see his daughter.

12. We got to see all kinds of Sun's tomatoes in this episode. Here is the one that is safe for work ...

Line of the week goes to Sawyer yet again:

Sawyer: What do you need a boat for? Can't you just turn into black smoke and fly your ass over the water?

Not-Locke: Do you think that if I could do that that I'd still be on this island?

Sawyer: No, because that'd be ridiculous.
