

LOST
SEASON 6 EPISODE 15

TITLE: ACROSS THE SEA

Across the sea is where Claudia and the old old old old-school others came from. The new “Mother” tells the “Boy in Black” that there is nothing across the sea. “The island is all there is.”

1. Well holy crap. That was nuts, huh? The language Claudia and “Mother” were speaking in at the beginning of the episode was Latin. This means this whole episode took place a very long time ago. The wreckage of the ship Claudia arrived on also appeared to be the way a ship was made a long time ago. From the clothes, tools, etc., we are guessing this is during early Roman times.

2. Now we have two people with no names. Claudia said she only picked one name after having her twins, and since the crazy “Mother” went all smashee rockee in headed she will never pick a second name. The man in black was called “brother”, “my love”, etc., but never his name. To make me even more crazy, “Mother” did not have a name either. I would guess it is a fair assumption that the names of these people will be very important.

3. Jacob and The Boy in Black were put in white and black blankets at birth. Throw Claudia into the mix of mom’s who have given birth on the island and had their babies taken away from them. She joins the sad mommy group of Claire and Rousseau.

4. We now know for sure that the creepy boy that the Man in Black has been seeing on the island is the little Jacob.

5. Interesting lines from “Mother”

- “Jacob doesn’t know how to lie.”
- She tells the boy in black “You’re special”
- When the Boy is Black asks what dead is, she responds “Something you will never have to worry about.”
- She tells Jacob “It’s going to be you.” These were Sayid’s last words to Jack.

6. The game that Jacob and The Boy in Black are playing is Senet. An old Egyptian game. It is known to be one of the oldest games in recorded history. The line of the week would be while they are playing this game and Jacob is told he can't make a certain move because it's against the rules. The Boy in Black tells Jacob, "One day you can make up your own game and then everyone will have to follow your rules."

7. This is the magic glowing cave of mystery that will turn you into a smoke monster. It seems the wells everyone was digging all over the island was in search of this light since nobody could seem to find the normal entrance. (Man in Black searched for it for years.)

8. It's interesting how The Man in Black can see dead people but Jacob can't. Jacob did not see his mother.

9. So how about the knife... This knife is what The Man in Black uses when he kills "Mother." It is also the knife that he gives to Ben to kill Jacob. Dogen gives the knife to Sayid to kill the Man in Black. Everyone is so stabby.

10. The famous donkey wheel was made by the Man in Black. He is also the one who makes the well to get to it. At some point it got really cold down there to, but there was no hint of why that happened yet. He says he wanted to dig a larger hole into the light and use the wheel and water from the river to get off of the island. I am installing a giant wheel in my basement to see if I can make a portal to zap myself to Maui.

11. Mother gives Jacob the magic wine out of the magic bottle. Jacob showed this same bottle to Richard when he made the analogy that the island was like a bottle of wine with the cork holding in the evil. The bad news is that the Man in Black smashed the bottle in that episode. That's probably bad. It appears that saying the magic words and drinking the wine makes you the protector of the island with all the powers that comes with it. How will our friend Jack drink the magic protector of the island juice?

12. Mother is a lot like Ben. She will do anything to protect the island. She even purged the island of “others” like Ben did with Dharma.

13. Mother told them not to go in the light cave because they would be “worse than dead.” Worse than dead = you will turn into the smoke monster.

14. What an awesome ending! We finally got the answer to the question, “Who are the Adam and Eve skeletons?” The answer? What’s his name and what’s her name! That guy who wears black and the adoptive mother lady!
