

Lost Season 5 Episode 4
The Little Prince

Title:
The Little Prince

From Wikipedia:

Though ostensibly a children's book, The Little Prince makes several profound and idealistic points about life and human nature. Saint-Exupéry tells of meeting a young prince in the middle of the Sahara. The essence of the book is contained in the famous lines uttered by the fox to the Little Prince: "On ne voit bien qu'avec le cœur. L'essentiel est invisible pour les yeux." (One cannot see well except with the heart, the essential is invisible to the eyes). Other key thematic messages are articulated by the fox, such as: "You become responsible, forever, for what you have tamed" and "It is the time you have spent with your rose that makes your rose so important. "

Another interesting fact is that Rousseau's boat is named the Besixdouze (That's B612 for all you non-French speaking folk).

Besixdouze is the name of the asteroid that the Little Prince lives on in the book. Here is a picture of the wreckage from the boat:

The Little Prince could also be referring to Aaron.

1. The first time flash would be EXACTLY on 11/1/2004. The day the light from the hatch shot into the sky and the date that Aaron was born.

2. This is the surveillance report that Sun was looking at...

Except for one trip to the mailbox, subject never left ##### again that day. When subject had not passed a visible window #####-utes. Subject answered the telephone and replied that Lee Chin was in the shower and would return my call in fifteen minutes. I gave ##### my number I keep for such occasions but no message was left.

The last light was extinguished at 11:35 P.M.

Wednesday Morning

Except for three trips to the mailbox, subject never left 183 Pinecrest Drive. When subject had not passed a visible window for thirty minutes, subject answered the telephone and replied that Lee Chin was dead, a victim of suicide.

The last light was extinguished at 12:18 AM.

Wednesday Afternoon

Except for seven trips to the mailbox, subject never left 183 Pinecrest Drive. When subject had not passed a visible window for thirty minutes, subject answered the telephone. Claimed I was Melissa fing with her, and demanded to know when I mailed her the prints.

The last light was extinguished at 2:30 AM.

Wednesday Evening

Subject came out of the house at 8:15 AM. Set up a camping chair near

3. Sun's targets are Ben and or Jack?

4. Faraday mentions that he thinks the nosebleeds are related to how long people have spent on the island.

If the nosebleeds come quicker for those who have been there the longest, Charlotte may have been effected first because in prior episodes she has hinted that she was born on the island. (Which is strange for many reasons.)

The second person with nosebleeditits was Miles. He says he hasn't been on the island for long. Faraday says "Are you sure?"

and Miles doesn't answer. Juliet was hit last. She has been there for a while since she is a self proclaimed 'Other'. The strange part is that Miles has been on the island longer than Juliet, if we are using the Nosebleed Timeline theory.

5. After the second time flash we are sometime in the future. The LOSTees camp is there, but totally destroyed. It looks like yet another plane had crashed. Ajira airlines out of India. Is this from the plane that the Oceanic 6 get back to the island on?

Also, Sawyer found Vincent's leash, but no Vincent.

6. We finally get to see when Rousseau got shipwrecked and we got to see the rest of her crew. All, according to her, who will be killed by the Others. Rousseau is also pregnant with Alex in this time period. Poor Alex. All dead and stuff. Stupid Ben. According to what Danielle Rousseau has told us in previous episodes, the last flash put everybody in 1988.

6. Jin is alive. That's 15 points for me.

7. Hurley in a jumpsuit. Nothing here, just really fun to look at.

8. Pointless fact of the week:

The license plate on the attorney's (Dan Norton's) car is the same plate from Ironhide in the Transformers Movie.

9. Locke says that he has to bring back the Oceanic 6... Even if it kills him.... It will...

10. The van that Jack and Ben were in said Canton Rainier on the side.
More fun with anagrams. "REINCARNATION" Hmmph.

Numbers:

Kate's Address is 42 Panorama Crest

Sayid is unconscious for 42 house.

Ben wants everyone to meet at slip number 23 at the Long Beach Marina

Pushing it a bit, but there were 16 chocolate candies in the box that Sun got.

Best Lines:

Runner Up :

Sawyer: Time travel is a bitch.

Winner:

Sayid: Who is that?

Ben: That's my lawyer.
