

Season 2 Episode 19 - S.O.S.

Enjoy this one, because we are on a THREE WEEK break.

Ugh.

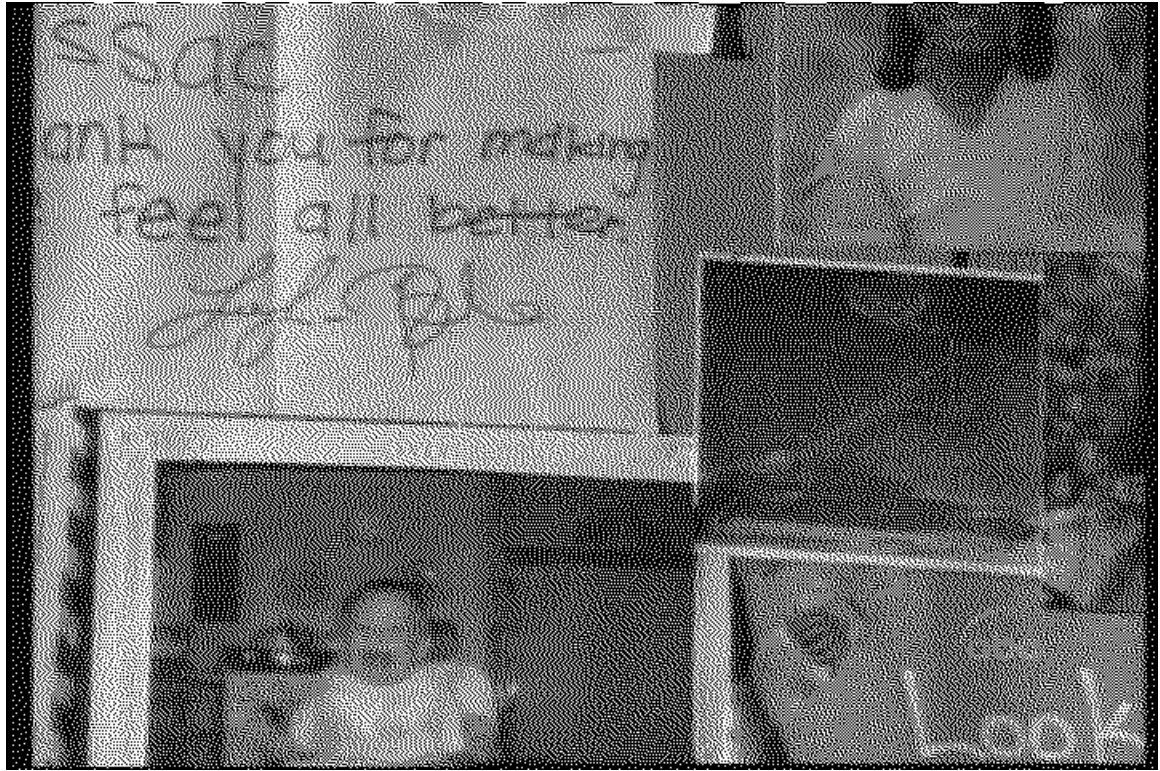

Not too much this week, so I added a lot of screen shots and 'extras' to keep you thinking until next month.

1. Roses 'faith healer' Isaac of Uluru had the same reaction to Rose as Claire's psychic (Malkin) had. They obviously saw something that freaked them out a little.

2. Isaac mentioned strong magnetism as a healing device. Here are shots of his wall. Don't know if there is anything useful on it.

3. Rose wanted to go to the beach for her honeymoon. Well, she got her wish.

4. Sawyer was amazed Jack had a gun. We can assume then that Charlie did not tell Sawyer he kept a gun when hiding them all. Anna Lucia took the gun from Charlie on their little hike for the balloon, and then gave it to Jack in this episode. That is a well travelled weapon.

5. The page Locke was trying to draw the map on is written in French. Looks like it could be a reference to two children the others are looking for? Pure speculation of course, but you can decide for yourself. (Remember they took Danielle's daughter, Walt (we assume), and tried to get Claire's baby too. Now Sun is pregnant.)

Discutons nos travers, nos rêves et nos goûts,
Discuss our difference, our dreams and our tastes

Comparons à loisir le moderne et l'antique,
Compare with leisure the modern and the ancient (the old and the new)

Et ferrailons sous ces drapeaux jaloux!

(This one isnt easy to translate, i believe it should be translated as follows : "And lets fight awkwardly under those jaelous flags! or "And lets fight like people who dont know how to use or manipulate a sword under those jaelous flags! ")

Quand nous serons au bout de notre rhétorique,

When we will be at the end of our rhetoric
(When we wont have anymore to say)

Deux enfants nés d'hier en sauront plus que nous.

Two children born yesterday will know more than us.
(Two children who were born recently will be more aware than us)

Ô jeunes coeurs remplis d'antique poésie,

Oh young hearts filled with ancient poetry.

Soyez les bienvenus, enfants chéris des dieux

Be welcome, darling children of the Gods

Vous avez le même âge et le même génie.

You have the same age and the same genius (intelligence)

La douce clarté soit bénie

May the soft clarity be blessed

Que vous ramenez dans nos yeux!

That you bring back to our eyes

Allez! que le bonheur vous suive!

Go! May the happyness follow you (or be with you)

Ce n'est pas du hasard un caprice inconstant

It is not a coincidence an inconstant whim.

Qui vous fit naître au même instant.

That made you born at the same time

Votre mère ici-bas, c'est la Muse attentive

Your mother here (on earth) is the attentive "Muse"

Qui sur le feu sacré veille éternellement.

Who eternally (always) take care of the sacred fire.

How's Locke doing in his attempt to recreate the map? Not too shabby !

6. Lots of 'Red Shirts'** (meaningless extras) this week. Hooray for Neil the Fro-gurt guy !

7. MMMMMMMMM.... Dharma Green Beans !

8. Back to Isaac of Uluru. I am not even going to get into this, but if you want to get crazy reading into things, check out this theory by an online Lost theorist:

ULURU

Ayers Rock is a large magnetic mound large not unlike Silbury Hill in England. It is located on a major planetary grid point much like the Great Pyramid in Egypt.

9. Ana Lucia was reading an Atlas in the hatch.

10. The montage song at the end was 'These Arms are Mine' by Otis Redding.

These arms of mine, they are lonely,
Lonely and feeling blue.

These arms of mine, they are yearning,
Yearning from wanting you.

And if you would let them hold you,
Oh how grateful I will be.

These arms of mine, they are burning,
Burning from wanting you.

These arms of mine, they are wanting,
Wanting to hold you.

And if you would let them hold you,
Oh how grateful I will be.

Come on, come on please let them.
Just be my little woman.
Just be my lover.

I need me somebody, somebody to treat me right.
I need your arms, loving arms to hold me tight.

I need your, I need your tender lips, to hold me,
To hold me together when I'm around you.

11. Re-visiting the pilot, Rose mentioned that the sound the 'monster' made was familiar to her. This has been argued about for some time now about what she could have meant. With all the magnet talk, and now knowing that she had cancer, perhaps it sounds like an MRI to her. (Magnetic Resonance Imaging)

** Red Shirts: For those of you unfamiliar with this phrase, it is terminology invented from Star Trek. Kirk, Spock, and some guy in a red shirt would go down to explore a planet. Of course Spock and Kirk live. The 'Red Shirt' always gets killed. So now, 'Red Shirt' stands for any meaningless extra that you never saw before who you can kill off. (I.E. Dynamite guy.)

Best Line: Bernard to Mr. Ecco : 'I liked you better when you just hit people with your stick.'

Runner up: Charlie : 'Well, I like you just the way you are.'

Sawyer nicknames:

Jack: Dr. Giggles

Forget who: Norma Rae

Magic Numbers:

15 people helping Bernard

15 bullets in Jack's gun

2 years in remission for Rose's cancer

108 minutes (all numbers added together) on the timer (this has been shown before too of course, but hey, it's a light week.)

Stuff that we all saw, but is interesting to think about:

The island heals dead sperm, spinal injuries, mental conditions and cancer ? I gotta get me some magnets ! (It was all the rage a few years ago to wear magnetic bracelets. Joe Torre wore one all the time. If it's good enough for the Yankees skipper, it's good enough for me ! ) : )

Rose knew about Locke's legs. Since Locke was on the plane first and already sitting, it was assumed nobody knew about his wheelchair.

Rose has (had) cancer

Rose and Bernard were on their honeymoon and have been together less than a year.

Bernard is a dentist with really bad teeth. (actually, Hurley mentioned that he was a dentist in passing in an earlier episode.)

Rose seemed to have snapped Locke out of his funk. Hopefully the good old boar hunting survivalist Locke is back.

Mr. Ecco is building a church.

"Henry" is a manipulative scumbag with a scary smile.
Henry knows about Walt.
Kate finally tells Jack about the OB/GYN hatch.
Was the trap set by Dannielle or the 'others'? It looks like a Dannielle trap to me (sayid).
Michael is finally back !!!

And since we will be without lost for 3 whole weeks:

Here is why everyone (so far) was in Australia:

Jin was on his way to L.A. in order to deliver the gold watch as a gift. Perhaps they had a layover in Oz or business there as well. I don't think they ever said why they were there specifically.

Sayid was on his way to L.A. to find Nadia.

Jack was there to bring his fathers body back.

Claire lived there and was on her way to L.A. to give up the baby for adoption.

Rose and Bernard were there to see Isaac.

Kate was on the run.

Locke was there for a Walkabout (roll about) adventure.

Ana Lucia, we don't know why yet.

Hurley was there to see Sam Toomie about the magic numbers.

Sawyer was there to kill the guy he believed (and was told) had conned his parents.

Charlie was there to visit his brother and get Drive Shaft back together.

Michael was there to get Walt ?

Boone was rescuing his 'sister'.

See everyone in 3 weeks !!
